Lawyer offers free advice

9th December 2010

Lawyer Jonathan de Vere Tyndall is holding two pro bono (for the public good) sessions at Harvest Café, Newrybar on Monday, December 13 and 20, from 10am.

Interested people should just turn up to the cafe and will be seen on a first-come-first-served basis.

"I'm doing this to help people," Jonathan said. "It's been a time of great difficulty. With the Global Financial Crisis people are experiencing a lot of problems, familial, financial and personal so I'm doing this, basically to help.

"I can help people with things like concerns about debt, bankruptcy, insolvency, loss of home from banks, credit problems, family law problems, and industrial law problems.

"Particularly around Christmas, although it's a time of giving, it can also be a time of great stress, where things can come to a head with financial problems and people don't know what to do.

"Some people can't get Legal Aid so this is something where a lot of problems can be helped resolved."

Jonathan is on the Legal Aid panel, for civil, family and children. For more information phone Tyndall & Co Lawyers on 6688 2492.
